DISTINCTIVENESS

Late Bapusaheb Ekambekar College Hanegaon has a special distinctiveness of its location. The college is established with aims and objectives of providing education to those pupils who are living in a very remote area and far away from education. The college is located in such a tribe and remote area between the borders of three states of India i.e. Karnataka, Telangana and Maharashtra. Many students' families are having base of either Karnataka or Telanganawho settled in these locations for survival. To provide education to such down trodden pupil is the main motive of the college. Here, the distinctiveness of the college lies.

Apart from it, the college made available a huge ground for nearby people for exercise and daily walk for fitness. This means, the college is not only taking care of students of the college but also outside the college people, it is providing facilities of the ground to maintain the health and physical fitness.

The college has planted trees of fruits like mangoes and others in the campus to make aware about the marketing skills amongst students. Students are taught how we can develop business from agriculture as a minor start up and can success with these skills in future.

Providing education to the very remote area location, providing ground and outdoor sport facilities for students as well as nearby locality for
