RESEARCH INCUBATION CENTER

Introduction:

Teaching, learning and evaluation are the continuous process at the college level. Accordingly those regular classes and various activities are conducted there. However, in recent times higher education institutions are expected to conduct research activity along with teaching-learning. A Research Incubation Center was established in the college with the aim of inculcating the research attitude among the students along with the teachers and to turn the students towards the research process in the future.

Nature of the Activities of the Center:

The Center is dedicated to deliver support to research culture in College. For this the Center focuses on the following activities.

- To conduct special lectures/guest lectures on Research Methodology.
- To introduce various tools & techniques of Research.
- To make available research papers, articles to students and teachers for reading.
- To introduce the students skill of research paper writing.
- To make available research journals to students for reading.
